dot-art.com Presents:

“Synthesis of Recollection”
An exhibition of new work by Frank Linnett - 21st June - 30th July 2010

Frank is a well established Liverpool based artist, who has been exhibiting regionally and nationally for over 25 years. This series of new oil paintings, entitled “Synthesis of Recollection” and shown for the first time at dot-art, continues to explore the artist's ongoing interest in combining real and imagined worlds and experiences.

The series of ten paintings are based on things experienced, bringing together elements of the natural landscape and man-made structures that have been recalled and reconfigured through a synthesis of observation and imagination.

Frank talks about his working process and subject matter:

"Working on the premise that all things are useful when decanting influences into a visual form, allows me to exploit a variety of disparate subject matter for my own ends. It is important that there are visible references to real things in my painting even if they in themselves do not reflect a definite reality. Everything goes into the mix and is made visible on the canvas. Hence there are references to historical events and hints at social comment and contemporary issues; straightforward studies from the everyday and of imaginary landscapes. Each of these is a response to what has happened or is happening and can be linked on a subconscious level to the need to react to an impulse."

All work is for sale. Admission is free.

The exhibition is open to the public from 12-6pm Monday to Friday and by appointment, at dot-art, 16 Queen Avenue, Castle Street, Liverpool, L2 4TX. Please call 0845 017 6660 or see www.dot-art.com for more information or to make an appointment.
