Liverpool Encore celebrates the continuation and strength of quality of Liverpool's cultural scene and achievements, through each individual artist's interpretation of the city.

The work on show, which encompasses painting, drawing and photography, has been selected to highlight the successful artists and events of 2008, but also underline the ongoing energy and cultural activity in the city and continue the momentum generated by our Capital of Culture year.

Lucy Byrne of dot-art said:

"From grand, sweeping panoramas to intricate, often overlooked details, the city of Liverpool is here in all it's glory.
